

I. Getting Started

Apply Early!

It is in your best interests to apply to and submit the required materials for the service academy (or academies) of your choice ASAP as most academies have a rolling admissions process that allows them to evaluate applications as they are completed. Additionally, applying to multiple academies at the same time is manageable because many of the academies are seeking similar recommendations, transcripts, medical exam results, etc.

Seek all possible nominations

You should seek nominations from both United States senators, your member in the House, the vice president, and a presidential nomination if applicable, i.e. for dependents of retired and active duty military personnel as well as all other nomination sources that apply to you.

Submit your nomination application and materials in one packet

Please submit your application and supplemental materials in one packet including your sealed recommendation letters and transcript; however, I strongly encourage you not to wait until the deadline to submit your materials. My deadline is Friday, October 28, 2016. You may also access this application at my website <https://evanjenkins.house.gov>; select constituent services and then academy nominations.

HELPFUL HINT!

Consider the United States Coast Guard Academy. To gain admission, apply directly to the Academy. The Coast Guard Academy does not require a nomination and offers appointments based solely on the applicant's qualifications. To obtain an application, contact:

II. Minimum Requirements

All applicants must meet the following basic criteria in order to be considered for my nomination:

- You must be a citizen of the United States and domiciled in West Virginia. Domicile is defined as person's fixed, permanent and principal home. You are domiciled in West Virginia if your parent, legal guardian (or you) vote in and file state income tax returns in West Virginia.

NOTE: Children of active-duty military must apply to the state of record for the service member.

- Applicants to the Air Force, Military or Naval academies must never have been married nor have any dependents.
- You must be at least 17 years of age but not older than 23 years of age to apply to the Air Force, Military or Naval Academies as of July 1 of the year of entrance. For the Merchant Marine Academy, you must be at least 17 years of age and not have passed your 25th birthday on July 1.
- You must be able to enter an academy in June of 2017 – for example, will you graduate from high/home school in 2017?
- You must have taken the SAT or ACT at least once by my deadline. I strongly encourage you to take the SAT and/or ACT multiple times.

The previous requirements are only minimum objective criteria. Emphasis is also placed on extracurricular activities, moral character, leadership potential, physical vigor and other qualifications applicable to the service academies.

Academy Review Board Interview

After October 28, 2016 (provided your application is complete), I will send you a letter or an email with a date and time for your interview before my Academy Review Board, as applicable. These interviews are tentatively scheduled for a Saturday in January.

IV. How Are Nominees Selected?

- Service academies make the final decision on appointments.
- Admission to the academies is determined by each academy. In addition to seeking my nomination, you must contact the admissions officer at each academy directly to initiate a pre-candidate file.
- Each United States senator and representative may have five cadets/midshipman charged to them at the Air Force, Military and Naval academies. Each member may submit up to 10 names for each vacancy that they have during a nominating season. Vacancies are created when cadets/midshipmen either graduate or leave the academy. Ten names may be submitted to the Merchant Marine Academy each nominating period, and there is no limit on the number of midshipman that a member can have at the Merchant Marine Academy at any one time. The 10 names constitute a slate and the academies consider making offers of appointment to each nominee.
- I nominate on a competitive basis. Members can nominate by using one of three methods – competitive, principal, or principal with numbered alternates. Nomination on a competitive basis asks the academies to consider each nominee equally without any regard to rank or specific emphasis on a single candidate.
- My nomination does not guarantee an appointment. Final decisions on appointments are made by each individual academy.

V. Remember

My deadline is Friday, October 28, 2016. It is your responsibility to ensure that the completed application is submitted to my office by 5 p.m. on that day. I encourage you to check the status of your application packet after you submit it. Please print legibly as your application materials will be shared with members of my Academy Review Board.

Any questions or need assistance? Please contact Michael Chirico at 304-522-2201

This is your application! It is your responsibility to make sure that all information is sent to my office, including those items from other parties, by the deadline.
